

Do not - repeat do NOT - attempt to weaken the Wisconsin do-not-call list. It is barely strong enough as it is. Making it resemble the Federal list would, in essence, make it useless. Only when banks and telemarketers begin to pay my telephone bills, I will be willing to let them unrestricted access to my private telephone.